

SMHEA Used Curriculum Sale

Saturday, May 22, 2010

Location— Knoxville Christian School

Sell your used curriculum, toys, and games

Anyone can buy (an administration fee will be added to the purchase to help defray administrative and facilities expenses)

Anyone can sell (an administration fee will be deducted from the sales total to defray administrative and facilities expenses)

SMHEA members may volunteer to work the sale, and attend the volunteer presale.

SMHEA members will receive a discount on the administration fee charged to sellers.

Watch here for updated registration and volunteer information as it becomes available.