

Veronica Helene Shreve

Veronica Helene Shreve was presented the THEA 2010 outstanding student award at the annual Capitol Hill Rally and Reception March 23, 2010 held in the War Memorial Auditorium of the Legislative Plaza in Nashville. Veronica is the daughter of James and Renee Shreve of Knoxville and represented SMHEA at this year's event.

- Dual enrollment student at Pellissippi State Community College for coursework in the sciences, math, foreign language, and history
- Candidate for Pellissippi State Community College Outstanding French Award
- Completed the Tennessee Governor's School for Scientific Models and Data Analysis
- Participated in a project designing rule sets for a Mars Exploration Rover-type neural network and testing the rule sets using Maple software in a project at East Tennessee State University
- Principal harpist in the Knoxville Symphony Youth Orchestra
- Volunteer harp performances for churches, schools, charities, and the community
- Developed own harp performance business for weddings and other social events
- University of Tennessee Haslam Scholars Program Finalist
- National Merit Finalist
- Future plans include attending college in the Fall of 2010 and pursuing interests in Classics, linguistics, physics, and music